"He that has no fools, knaves nor beggars in his family was begot by a flash of lightening."

Seventeenth-century English Clergyman
THOMAS FULLER

CREEL FAMILY HISTORY

The Creel family of south Mississippi, Perry, Jones, Lauderdale counties from 1820-1880, and Harrison county from 1875, descendants from John Creel of South Carolina. He had at least 3 sons, Thomas, Henry, and John Creel, all born in South Carolina in the late 1700s in Orangeburg and Chesterfield counties. These brothers were in Mississippi about 1817, John in Perry County, Henry moved west or died early, and Thomas then settled in Jones County, Mississippi. Thomas moved back and forth from Lauderdale County to Jones County with his wife's family, the Dearmans.

Old John Creel, born about 1745 in North Carolina or Virginia and died about 1800 in South Carolina. His sons were on the 1810 census of Chesterfield Co., after which they moved to Tennessee for a few years, then moved to Perry Co., Mississippi.
